MCMXLVII

Pater Carissime!

Cum ne ultimis hisce anni dielus a numeribus me magis magisque oppri-mentibus vacare possem, nullum tamen annicittiae et memoriae signum tibi mittere nolui.
Quare has raptim scriptas litterulas pro pignore habeas studii erga te mei neque nunquam ex animo dilapsuri. Iam multi abierunt menses a quo te vidi, a quo tecum Romae verno tempore sum locutus. Viridis superest memoria, quam aliquando renovari posse spero. Fieri potest ut mense Iulio proximus Romanus petam ut per duas septimanas libros inspiciam manu scriptos in bibliotheca Vaticana. Fortasse et te videbo!

Quo statu nunc est salus tuor et valetudo?
Nos valimus omnes at pessimo ventorum imbriz-umque tempore coptidie fere serimus et torquemus. Dies natalis non erat nivosa sed pluviosa.
At sol moneat in cordibus nostris, Deo invante.

Vale, Pater, in novum annum et nostri memor semper esto! J. Ysewijn in the first year of his life.

He was born in 1819 in a small town in the state of Maine.
His parents were simple people and had little education, but they were kind and good and taught him well. He grew up to be a strong boy and a good student. He was interested in history and enjoyed learning about the past. He studied and learned about many different countries and their histories. He also enjoyed reading novels and stories. He became interested in writing and began to write his own stories and poems. He wrote many books and became famous for his writing. He died in 1891 at the age of 72.
